

THANK YOU FOR HELPING US TO HELP THE CHILDREN

Palli Unnayan Seva Samiti (PUSS)

A small voluntary organisation which has for over 30 years helped children in Odisha. In 1992 Kadambini Bhuyan, the remarkable woman who started PUSS, identified 20 little girls from a prostitutes' colony in Odisha whose mothers were anxious to save them from living the same life.

PUSS set up a small boarding section for these girls, Professors Gerry Johnson & Malcolm Harper from Cranfield School of Management were teaching in Bhubaneswar at that time and were moved to set up Friends of the children of Orissa to support them. Since then the number of girls has risen to over 300. Kadambini died in 2008 and PUSS has since then been ably managed by her successor.

Society for children (SOCH)

Started in 2012 to help children who end up on railway stations in Odisha to be reunited with their families or otherwise to find a safe home. Its founder Manoj Kumar earlier worked for an institution which does similar work elsewhere in India. He started SOCH with our support and they rescue around 1000 children each year in Odisha, and also run a residential centre to rehabilitate long term street and railway children.
